

The program Top++ outputs text files in gnuplot format. It is meant to be used for plotting mass bands. For that purpose the results are output in a format convenient for processing with the graphing program Gnuplot.

Soon we will be adding sample files and more; please stay tuned.